

Regional foreign trade year 2020: most Austrian federal states with declines

Vienna, 2021-07-15 – In the year 2020, most Austrian federal states had to register a decrease in their foreign trade values, according to preliminary results by Statistics Austria.

The effects of the Covid-19 pandemic led to a significant decline in the overall Austrian foreign trade values (imports -8.6% and exports -7.5%). The strongest relative reduction on the export side was registered in Styria (-14.2% or -€3.69 bn), followed by Upper Austria (-8.3% or -€3.32 bn) and Carinthia (-7.8% or -€0.58 bn). Tyrol (-1.7% or -€0.22 bn) and Vorarlberg (-2.6% or -€0.28 bn) recorded smaller declines compared to the other federal states. In terms of imports, Lower Austria (-€3.43 bn), Vienna (-€3.13 bn) and Styria (-€2.41 bn) recorded the highest absolute declines. Burgenland (-13.8%), Lower Austria (-12.7%) and Styria (-12.3%) recorded the strongest relative decreases compared to the previous period. Tyrol was the only federal state to achieve a positive development (+0.8% or +€0.10 bn). Five of the nine federal states showed a foreign trade surplus for the reference period. Upper Austria had the largest surplus (€9.35 bn), followed by Styria (€5.08 bn) and Vorarlberg (€2.78 bn). Vienna displayed the highest trade deficit (-€15.88 bn).

The exports of goods from Austria amounted to a total of €141.93 bn. in the year 2020. With more than one quarter, Upper Austria had the largest share in the overall Austrian exports (€36.67 bn, 25.8%). Styria was the federal state with the second highest export values (€22.26 bn or 15.7%), followed by Lower Austria (€20.82 bn or 14.7%) and Vienna (€19.43 bn or 13.7%). Overall imports of Austria totalled €144.20 bn. With a value of €35.30 bn, Vienna had the highest share on the import side (24.5%), followed by Upper Austria (€27.31 bn or 18.9%) and Lower Austria (€23.67 bn or 16.4%). In terms of trade intensity (sum of imports and exports), Upper Austria, Vienna and Lower Austria were the federal states with the highest foreign trade values.
